

Cleaning draught dispense brass and chrome

| | |
|------------------|--|
| Cloth | Blue |
| PPE | N/A |
| Chemicals | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Brass cleaner • Washing-up liquid |
| Reference | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • COSHH manual • DMLB • SOP B0026 - Dealing with a spillage • SOP OF0087 - Logging and reviewing APOS wastage |

| | |
|---|--|
| Step 1  | Areas that need to be polished: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hand-pull base, stem, arch and tip. • T-Bars. • Drip tray covers. • Stand alone fonts. |
| Step 2  | To clean chrome: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Using a clean blue cloth and warm soapy water, wipe over the base, stem, arch and tip of hand-pulls, T-bars and fonts. • Once cleaned, use blue roll to polish until dry and gleaming. • The channel at the base of the T-bar must be cleaned daily using blue roll. |
| Step 3  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Drip tray covers need to be put through the glasswash at the end of every night. • Allow to air dry and replace on bar top. |
| Step 4  | To clean brass: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Apply small amount of brass cleaner to blue roll and apply to base, stem, arch and tip of hand-pulls and T-bars using a circular motion until all areas are covered. • Before the brass cleaner dries, polish off using blue roll until gleaming. |
| Step 5  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Brass drip tray covers need to be washed in warm soapy water at the end of every night. • Dry with blue roll and refer to step 4 to polish. • Replace on bar top. |

Cleaning draught dispense brass and chrome

| | | |
|-------------------|---|--|
| Step 6 |  | Drip trays: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Drain and measure drip tray wastage. Record in the DMLB.• Clean inside and outside with warm soapy water.• Leave to air dry. |
| Step 7 |  | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• These duties are part of the bar closedown procedures.• Once checked and completed, record in the DMLB.• Mop up any spillage immediately and dry with blue roll. Refer to SOP B0026 - Dealing with a spillage.• Wastage must be recorded in the DMLB and transferred to APOS wastage on a daily basis. Refer to SOP OF0087 - Logging and reviewing APOS wastage.• Action must be taken to repair or replace all damaged drip trays and dispense equipment. |